This weeks Readings

Jonah 3:1-5, 10; 1 Cor 7:29-31; Mk 1:14-20

Year of St. Joseph

With his Apostolic Letter "Patris corde" ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis recalls the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To mark the occasion, the Holy Father has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph," beginning on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 8 2020, and extending to the same feast in 2021. During this period, the faithful will have the opportunity to commit themselves "with prayer and good works, to obtain, with the help of St. Joseph, head of the heavenly Family of Nazareth, comfort and relief from the serious human and social tribulations that besiege the contemporary world today."

The Apostolic Penitentiary also issued a decree granting special indulgences for the duration of the special year to celebrate the anniversary and "to perpetuate the entrustment of the whole Church to the powerful patronage of the Custodian of Jesus."

The plenary indulgence is granted to those who will meditate for at least 30 minutes on the Lord's Prayer, perform a spiritual or corporal work of mercy following the example of St. Joseph, or those who will recite the Holy Rosary in families and among engaged couples.

The plenary indulgence is also granted to anyone who entrusts their daily activity to the protection of St. Joseph or invokes the intercession of St. Joseph so that those seeking work can find dignifying work. The Apostolic Penitentiary also grants a plenary indulgence to the faithful who will recite any legitimately approved prayer or act of piety in honour of St. Joseph.

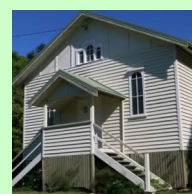

With St. Joseph as our parish patron saint, all through this year of St. Joseph starting from this week, it will be proper for us to have the prayers of St. Joseph in our Weekend Mass PowerPoint slide, and to recite the prayer together after the post communion prayer. Other parish, individual or group activities to celebrate this year of St. Joseph are encouraged.

Welcome back to our School Community

As we gradually approach the commencement of the new school academic year for 2021 this week, we warmly welcome back to our school classes our lovely school students and staff. We look forward to having you all around, and pray this year will be a year of prosperity in your academic endeavours.

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YR B

Lord, teach us your paths...

The ironical book of Jonah is both instructive and amusing. Jonah was terrified by God's call to preach in Nineveh. He tried to run away from the work God had given him. When at last he accepted his work there was no difficulty at all! The pagan Ninevites were converted straight away. Unlike Jonah the fishermen apostles did not hesitate. When Christ called them they followed him at once, leaving all. They were to be fishers of men not in one city but in the whole world. Merciful, kind God, show us the way of your truth.

GOSPEL COMMENTARY

Even as the season of Ordinary Time begins to gather momentum, many may still be on summer holidays or at least in a holiday frame of mind. Today's readings have a dynamism about them that jolt us out of our easy lethargy. Welcome or unwelcome, the call to repent-to change our ways-is in the air.

We hear of the prophet Jonah's successful mission to the Ninevites of old; we hear Jesus' summons to his hearers to "repent and believe the Good News"; and we hear Paul the apostle warning the Corinthians (and now us) that the approach of the end times calls for freedom of heart. Most of the time we do not like change, even when it promises better things, This Sunday is our opportunity to move into the new school and working year with a willingness to "let go and let God".
