Mass at Palmwoods

Last week I announced that we're looking at starting our usual once a month Mass at Palmwoods, and asked parishioners from around the area to let us know what time will be best for them between 5.30pm on third Sundays and 11am on second Sundays. Currently, we have received a couple of responses suggesting 11am. If you still have a preferred option, could you please let the parish office know before the end of this month.

Nametags

All Parishioners who ordered nametags are advised the order has arrived and your name tags are ready for purchase this week. The magnetic nametags are $14.00 and the pin on ones are $10. You can collect and pay at the Registration tables this weekend.

Fr Odinaka

As you may have seen in the media, the Sunshine Coast is struggling with the issue of homelessness. With greatly increased rents, and the impacts of interstate migration, we are finding a large number of people are not able to find affordable housing. The already exhausted stock of public housing has been taken up. This has resulted in many people now living in their cars, sleeping rough in tents and couch surfing. This has great impacts on their well-being both physically and mentally.

We, at St Joseph's Conference are seeking assistance with donations and support of our Easter raffle during the next few weeks, to enable us to meet the needs of an overwhelming number of people doing it tough. We are committed to providing them with a listening ear, food, petrol vouchers and travel vouchers to assist in relocating where possible.

Your support would be gratefully received.

- ◆ Hospitality volunteers from pre-COVID rosters are invited to resume roster and complete the COVIDSAFEWORK Tafe course online 20 minutes, plus there are two brief forms to be completed in relation to the current Safeguarding matrix for those rostered in hospitality. We look forward to everyone getting back to Parish normal.

NEWSLETTER SPONSORSHIP

Fr Odinka's innovative fundraiser:

The Parish newsletter will soon be offering advertising space in the newsletter for both local businesses and Parishioners. All advertisements will be subject to approval by the Parish Priest. Please email stjoe.nambour@bne.catholic.net.au for more information regarding advertisement structure and costs. This venture may, in due course, cover the expenditure incurred by the Office printer per annum.

We look forward to Parish businesses supporting this initiative.

STEWARDSHIP

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything..." - Exodus 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God's help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

EASTER

Expressions of interest sheets for the Easter ceremonies are available in the work room from this weekend and until Sunday 14 March. If you are a member of a Ministry and can assist during the Triduum, please leave your name for consideration on the sheets.

You might think you can't help but here are some ways in which you could assist if you are not a member of a Ministry:

- ◆ Be a greeter at the Masses for Holy Thursday and the Easter Vigil, even though the church will be in darkness. All you need to bring is your smile.
- ◆ A family might like to bring the Offertory gifts forward on Holy Thursday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday.
- ◆ During the Passion of Our Lord on Good Friday afternoon, assist with the Veneration of the Cross.

Remember that online registrations are available now for Mass on Holy Thursday and the Passion on Good Friday afternoon. It will assist if everyone would register for all the Easter ceremonies as early as possible, either via the Eventbrite site or by contacting the office. The Stations of the Cross at 10:00am on Good Friday morning will be by sign in as you arrive. Thank you.
