From Deacon Tim: I heard a quote some years ago, which made me smile, though there is some truth to it: "Our world is a beautiful world – it's just people who stuff it up!"

Our world is a world of joy and fulfilment, but of course it is also a world of tragedy and pain. But God is present to us in both worlds. When things are going well, it is easy to be open to God's presence. Similarly in our relationships, when things are going well, it is easy to be open, loving and receptive to the other person. The challenge comes when things aren't going so well.

Watching, listening, or reading the daily news –however we receive it these days – can be depressing, as a lot of the bulletins report on murders, rapes, road fatalities, drug abuse, robberies, wars, neighbourhood brawls, pandemics, natural disasters etc. Good news stories are not so common. It can easily lead us to believe that the world is only full of evil.

People often ask: where is God amid tragedy? We must always remember God does not cause tragedies to occur, but we find God in the solutions. When we are in pain, we can find God who stands by us. In our emotional distresses God comes to us through a friend, a family member, a counsellor, or a minister to offer us encouragement. When we are sick we can be grateful for those of the medical profession who work hard to restore our health. They are the instruments of God and through them his love comes. God is there through those who care - so many good people, doing good things.

No one escapes the struggles of life. Our faith does not make us immune from suffering. God never promised that life would be without its painful times. As Christians we are not protected by some invisible wall, but God will help us get through the difficulties.

As the Desiderata reads, "...with all its shams, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world!" Have a lovely week, everyone.

CONGRATULATIONS

Dear Parish Family,

What a special weekend for our St. Joseph's family last weekend as 32 children received their First Holy Eucharist! Because of the number of families involved, and Covid number restriction, we had two different Masses, one on Saturday at 6:00pm and the other on Sunday at 8am. Seeing these children all dressed up and having the honour of giving them Holy Eucharist on the special solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ makes this one of my favourite weekends!

St Joseph's Parish sends our best wishes to all the children. We know you had to wait a long time in preparation for this special sacrament but it was worth it in the end. You all looked so lovely and behaved so well during the Masses. I am absolutely sure that your parents were very proud of you. We certainly are. You can be rightly proud of yourselves. Well done. How awesome it will be to continue to see those beautiful faces every week as we worship together!

We are so grateful also to the parish staff and the whole Sacramental team for journeying with, and preparing these children for this most august Sacrament, and made their big day possible. We greatly appreciate your time and dedication to the service of the parish.

We also owe a great debt of gratitude to the parents and guardians of these children for helping them through this vital step in their Christian journey. Yes, the Sacrament is celebrated, the initiation process has been completed, but the journey is only beginning. We continue to encourage parents and guardians in their enormous effort to offer these children more opportunity of living out their faith by bringing them to Mass or even encouraging them to participate in the different ministries within the parish – Youth Ministry, Altar Serving Ministry, Music Ministry etc. These are concrete ways in which we can live out our Christian faith and also serve our parish community. We look forward to welcoming you in any of these ministries.

Thanks and God Bless! Fr Odina.

STEWARDSHIP

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.” - 2 CORINTHIANS 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day God will ask each of us what did we do with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?
