

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

1ST AUGUST, 2021

"Building a community of Jesus' disciples." We welcome you - We are one family

This weeks Readings:

Ex 16:2-4, 12-15; Eph 4:17, 20-24; Jn 6:24-35

"Sir, give us that bread always..." Jn. 6:34

Last week, we witnessed through the readings how Jesus fed the people who came to listen to him in the desert with five loaves and two fish. But when they came back next day for more of the same he said to them, 'Do not work for perishable food; work for the food that endures to eternal life.'

Looking at the liturgy today, we're invited to reflect on the Lord's wonderful provision, the demonstration of his enduring presence with us, and his love for us, as expressed in the Eucharist. He has always loved his people and cared for them.

The story of the Exodus experience, when he freed the Israelites from slavery and accompanied them on their succeeding long wandering in the desert, demonstrates the existence of this love from ages past. In spite of their grumbling and unfaithfulness, God never abandoned his people; the Lord supported and fed them, giving them Manna in the wilderness as a pledge of his divine care, his provision and saving love: "Mere men ate the bread of angels. He sent them abundance of food" (Ps. 78:25). All this pointed to the fulfilment of his promises as he brought them to his Holy Land, "to the mountain his right hand has won" (Ps. 78:54), so that they could be a people for him, an example of the nations.

The Lord was always with them throughout their journey, and the ultimate expression of his saving presence was made manifest to them in Jesus. In Jesus, the promises are spiritualised, as he became the gateway to eternal life.

To listen to Jesus is to be changed - to have our minds renewed by what St. Paul writing to the Ephesians calls "a spiritual revolution" (Eph. 4:23), "so that we can put on the new self that has been created in God's way" (Eph. 4:23).

Jesus, in his great discourse on bread, makes clear to the Pharisees that we can no longer be satisfied with material things, we say "Sir, give us that bread always" (Jn. 6:34). Jesus' answer "I am the bread of life" (Jn. 6:35) shows him to be our provider and our saviour: to partake of the flesh of his Word and to eat the flesh of his Body in the Eucharist is to find true fulfilment, the answer to all our hunger, our needs and our spiritual yearning.

He gives us this gift as the reminder of his saving presence in our midst, always nourishing us, binding us together in communion, and leading us onwards to the Promised Land of the Heavenly Kingdom.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Jesus waits for us in the Blessed Sacrament. He waits for our little Acts of faith, adoration, love, thanksgiving, repentance and charity that we can offer him as we contemplate — His Divine Majesty— In the Blessed Sacrament.

‘Could you not watch one hour with Me?’

Please come, join and adore Jesus in the Eucharistic Adoration on Friday 6th August from 8.30am till 8.00pm with Benediction from 6pm to 6.30pm. Please contact Rosanna on 415 563 805 or Peggy Caton on 0427 144 451.

STEWARDSHIP

“Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.” EXODUS 16:4
When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our “wants” from our “needs”. Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.
