Throughout the Gospels Jesus refers to himself as 'the son of man', a title he uses more than any other name. In the book of Daniel, Daniel has a vision of 'one like the son of man' who is presented to God. This son of man receives 'dominion and glory and kingdom' (Dan 7:14). This is the glory James and John request to participate in by attaining privileged seats in the kingdom. They have not understood that Jesus will be glorified by God the Father because He has served others and will give 'his life as a ransom for many' (Mark 10:45).

Jesus is the head of the Church, and we are the body; as Jesus has served, so must we serve. As Jesus has given himself for the eternal life of many, so must we, but always in union with Jesus.

The Greek word for service, 'diakonia' has several connotations. It can mean charitable service, which can be either private or Church authorised. Diakonia can also mean spiritual service, especially in connection with ordination, but not exclusively. Jesus is establishing what the Church would come to understand as corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

Corporal works of mercy include feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick, visiting prisoners, burying the dead and giving alms to the poor. Spiritual works of mercy include counselling the doubtful, instructing the ignorant, admonishing the sinner, comforting the sorrowful, forgiving injuries, bearing wrongs patiently, and praying for the living and the dead.

Today's Gospel reminds us that we are all called to serve the Church, whether the domestic church – the family, or the wider Church community. We all have a 'diakonia' to fulfil, a service to perform. We are also called to 'ransom' others through our personal sacrifices made in union with Jesus.

Next week Catholic Mission will invite you to partner with Sister Chalaad and the Good Shepherd Sisters in Thailand as they reach out to vulnerable mothers, like Churai*, and their babies, who would have nowhere to turn when they need support, love and kindness the most.

Next week you will have the opportunity to respond to what you have seen and heard, and the Home, as well as other vital mission programs supporting children and communities in need around the world.

Please come with an open and generous heart.

Thank you to Adrian Ferguson for his servanthip, craftsmanship and time put into the full restoration of the Parish courtyard bench chairs. The four bench chairs are amazing and alive again. Good Job Adrian!

With gratitude:- I'm writing this letter to all in St Joseph's Nambour Parish to thank you for the love and kindness you have shown Malcolm and me throughout our twenty-one years here, in particular during recent difficult weeks, when you also embraced our children and Sam, one of our grandchildren able to be present.

Father Odina, you celebrated a beautiful Mass for Malcolm, viewed also, via direct link, by Father Chris Sarkis, our former Parish Priest in Campbelltown, NSW, and our family unable to travel from Sydney, New Zealand and England due to Covid restrictions.

These have been very sad weeks that my children and I have endured. Father Odina, you helped our family so much. Malcolm was rushed to hospital. We called for you to come and you were able to give Malcolm the sacrament of Extreme Unction before he lost consciousness, while you gave us the sacrament of Holy Communion, said many prayers for us and remained with us for four hours. For this we are so grateful.

From my heart, a special thank you to all our fellow parishioners who have sent lovely cards and for all your prayers, tears and offers of help. I thank all our friends for the love shown to me and my family. Thank you all, for your prayers, care and great comfort. Love, Joyce Colclough.

Thank You:-

Carmel and I would like to thank everyone for your condolences. Dad lived an amazing life filled with family, adventures, travel, music and so much more. The last 3 years have seen his strength decline, but his sense of humour and cheeky little grin stayed with him to the end. Dad will be cremated privately next week and shortly after we will have a small service for both Dad and our brother Peter who passed away 21/12/20. When the country reopens my family shall travel to Perth for a big family celebration with Carmel and many of Dad's family. We love and miss you Dad.

Blessings to all, Darlene Malone.

Patrick Macri (RIP 12/10/2021) & his daughters Darlene & Carmel

PARISH COVID-19 UPDATE & EVENTBRITE BOOKING SYSTEM

The following restrictions are in place here at St. Joseph's Parish during this time:

A. Government Regulation:

All parishioners must sign in through the QLD Check-in App

B. Archdiocesan policy—Ticketed seating - all parishioners must receive a seat number from the marshals. 100% capacity for ticketed when allocating seating when permitted. Ticketed seating means a person is given a ticket with their seat number on it and will remain (as much as possible) in their allocated seat while at the place of worship. This also means we need your name and contact details for Parish records, to record the number of your seat —

C. PLEASE continue to use the Eventbrite Mass booking system:

The Online booking link is URL Link: <https://tinyurl.com/ytyf6xk9>

D. Masks must be worn in indoor or outdoor spaces if you are closer than 1 person per 2 square metres.

E. Clergy and readers who are socially distanced from others may remove their mask while speaking and then put the mask back on.

F. Parishioners may remove their masks momentarily for reception of Holy Communion.

G. The choir and cantors are required to wear a mask at all times.

Thank you all for your tolerance complying with the current COVID 19 Government Regulations.
