Tradition Connection

This Sunday's Gospel supports the proposition that Jesus has a preference for the poor. This love for the poor does not mean that we hate the rich or that the rich are automatically in trouble. The Beatitudes express a new law, the Law of the Gospel. Jesus is the continuity between the Old Law and the New Law of love. In the Gospel, by presenting it as a choice, Luke helps us understand this Law of Christ. We can choose poverty, hunger, weeping, and complete trust in God, or we can choose riches, comfort, popularity, and misguided happiness.

Wisdom Connection

Luke wants his community and us to understand that Jesus is very clear about the two paths we can take—one path is the road to blessedness, and the other path is the road to woefulness. The blessed are those who are poor, hungry, weeping, and followers of Jesus. The woeful are those who are rich, filled up, well thought of, and happy. The problem isn't the riches themselves, it is the attitude that rich people often have toward them. A wealthy person who values riches more than people who are poor, or who considers the accumulation of wealth more important than the path Jesus calls us to follow, is a woeful person because she or he seeks and finds comfort in wealth instead of in God.

Choosing Jesus does not necessarily mean that life on earth will be easy. But faithfulness never goes unrewarded in the Kingdom of God. We stay focused by trusting in God, as Jeremiah did: "Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, / whose trust is the Lord" (17:7). Christians who focus on this trust in the Lord—no matter what happens in their lives—will always remain faithful to God. No persecution is so severe, nor any life so filled with everything a human being could want, that a true follower of Jesus could turn away from God. Just as Moses gave the Israelites the Ten Commandments as true compasses to guide their spiritual and secular lives, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes to guide us through life as honorable members of God's Kingdom. These moral qualities identify God-fearing people. Those who conduct their lives in such honor-deserving ways will indeed be honored by God—the only honor that counts.

STEWARDSHIP

“Blessed are you when people hate you, ... exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man.” (LUKE 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

SEEKING

The External Gardening and handyman environment Ministry is seeking additional hands on workers for the Parish grounds. Please contact the Parish office on 5441 1034 if you have a few hours a week or fortnight to offer.

LENT RESOURCES 2022

Please contact the Parish office if you are interested in Leading a group for Lent or taking part in a group. Please register your interest.

The Spirit of the Cross books will be available shortly for purchase, $4.00each.

Written for busy individuals but easily adapted for Lenten groups, each day includes a scripture reading, a reflection upon it, some questions to aid prayer and discussion, and quotes from Pope Francis.

The daily reflections, written by the Executive Director of Evangelisation Brisbane, Dcn Peter Pellican, invite the reader to contemplate a verse from the Scripture reading of the day, and offers questions for reflection and discussion.

Inner Peace in Divine Love Retreat has unfortunately been POSTPONED at the present time due TO COVID19

Further details of Commencement will be published as soon as possible. Those already registered will be contacted in due course.

Retreat givers: Lynne Raw, Marie Lynch and Eric May Cost: Free of charge
Requirements: Please provide COVID-19 vaccination certificate

Online registration: <https://jisa.org.au/retreat/inner-peace-in-divine-love-2/>

PARISH COVID-19 UPDATE & EVENTBRITE BOOKING SYSTEM

The following restrictions are in place here at St. Joseph's Parish during this time:

A. Government Regulation:

All parishioners must sign in through the QLD Check-in App

B. Archdiocesan policy—Ticketed seating - all parishioners must receive a seat number from the marshals. 100% capacity for ticketed when allocating seating when permitted. Ticketed seating means a person is given a ticket with their seat number on it and will remain (as much as possible) in their allocated seat while at the place of worship. This also means we need your name and contact details for Parish records, to record the number of your seat —

C. PLEASE continue to use the Eventbrite Mass booking system:

COPY & PASTE The Online booking link: <https://tinyurl.com/yutf6xk9>

- ◆ COVID symptoms—please stay home or go to the Doctor.

In light of this, even though Places of Worship have not been specifically named, we strongly advise the wearing of masks when possible. A proactive approach to wearing masks will keep our churches safer for visitors. Thank you all for your tolerance complying with the current COVID 19 Government Regulations.
