“My soul glorifies the Lord...for He has been mindful of the humble state of His servant...He has brought down rulers from their thrones and has lifted up the humble” (Lk 1:47, 59). Mary attested to this through her Magnificat: There is no reason to wonder why Christ was humble. He had humble parents and learnt humility from them.

Humility seems to be the theme that unites all the readings together. The book of Sirach provides us with a candid advice. The author gives us the key to a successful fellowship with God, and of course, with one another. “Behave humbly and you will find favour with the Lord.” This is absolutely right, as we can see in the life and ministry of Jesus. Humility was a distinctive mark of his life and ministry. So, it must also be for us as Christians. Sirach also goes on to remind us that pride is a disease. However, the good news is that, it can be cured through the imitation of Christ’s humility.

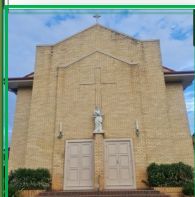

The letter to the Hebrews reminds us that our destination is Mount Zion, the heavenly Jerusalem, and the city of the living God. In this city, only the humble of heart - like the Angels and Saints can dwell there. Certainly, the proud cannot because, a proud heart cannot worship the Lord. In this city “everyone is a first born and a true and equal citizen.” Hence, as citizens of this city we must clothe ourselves with humility just like Christ our Mediator.

The gospel takes us to the climax of today’s good news. Christ urges us: “... Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted” (Lk. 14:11). Jesus teaches the importance of humility and simplicity in our Christian journey. In this regard, we have a lot to learn from the Blessed Virgin Mary who humbled herself. Her humility was so remarkable that God exalted her to be the Mother of His Son.

There is nothing to lose by being humble. Proverb tells us that: “Humility and the fear of the Lord brings wealth, honour, and life” (Prov 22:4). On the contrary, pride results in defeat and shame. Any spiritual life that is not based on humility will definitely be an empty one. This is because such a Christian will only work for himself, and without regards for others.

The CCC teaches us that: “Humility is the foundation of prayer.” (CCC 2559). Only a humble heart can come and prostrate before God in prayer. A humble person is always ready to ask for guidance from God and from others. He is also ready to listen, and learn from others. It takes humility to say please, and also, to ask for forgiveness. So, we must emulate the humility of Christ and Mary in order to be like them.

“O Jesus! Meek and humble of heart, make my heart like yours. From the desire to be honoured and esteemed deliver me!”
Fr Odinaka

ADORATION "In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Jesus waits for us in the Blessed Sacrament. He waits for our little Acts of faith, adoration, love, thanksgiving, repentance and charity that we can offer him as we contemplate — His Divine Majesty— In the Blessed Sacrament.

'Could you not watch one hour with Me?'

Please come, join and adore Jesus in the Eucharistic Adoration on Friday 2nd September, 2022 following 8:00am Mass, from 8.30am. Please contact Rosanna on 0415 563 805.

Please pray for the Sick and needy and all the sick of the Parish and their families including Denise Cole, Elsie Ford, Des Mitchell, Pia Aarts, Doreen Ayres, Martin Harrison, and particularly all those affected by coronavirus locally and globally, and their loved ones, and also those remaining in the Parish Journal for the Sick.

"Thank you to everyone who made contact through emails, phone calls, messages and cards etc on my recent knee surgery. Your prayerful support is very much appreciated. Regards Annette Baker"
