Praise Those Fathers

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice.

Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a worthy and virtuous father.

Let us praise those fathers who, by their own account, were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. As well, let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by words and actions of their children.

Let us praise those fathers who, despite marital discord, have remained in their children's lives.

Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has nurtured a thriving life.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely choose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect.

Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own.

Let us praise those men who have "fathered" us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children. And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

To all who act as a father-figures – fathers, stepfather's, uncles, grandfathers, and other significant adults we wish a resounding Happy Father's Day!

Archbishop Mark has a message for you

I've just attended my first meeting of the Bishops Commission for Social Justice to which I was elected at the last meeting of the Bishops Conference. As President of the Conference I didn't sit on any of the Commissions, but now that I've finished as President I have to sing for my supper. I've been asked to be the Episcopal Delegate to Caritas Australia, the Church's relief and development agency, best known perhaps for Project Compassion. The Commission for Social Justice will take me into areas that are new for me. So this old dog is looking forward to learning some new tricks.
