Luke 16:1 - 13: You cannot be slaves both of God and of money

Throughout our lives, we face a series of opportunities to serve God or to serve the powers that can provide our lives with riches and pleasures. Honest labour, undertaken with the right disposition, is a blessing from God, it is also a necessary duty to be fulfilled by those who are able, whether in the home or in society. Honest labour provides food, shelter and clothing for ourselves and our families. Jesus was a carpenter before His public ministry, giving dignity to everyday work.

Rule 16 Order of Secular Franciscans (OSF) states, “Let them esteem work both as a gift and as a sharing in the creation, redemption and service of the human community.” Through legitimate work and prayerful service in our labours, we bring Christ to others; this is one area of evangelisation that the laity has great access to.

The evangelisation of the workplace, and hence a large part of society, is more necessary today than ever. In the 1980s, a catchphrase became prevalent amongst those who worked in the city, particularly in the finance sector, “Greed is good.” Such sentiments are diametrically opposed to the Gospel. To love money is to worship a false God. To serve money is to reject God.

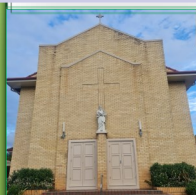

St Thomas Moore was reputed to be a saint long before his martyrdom. He served God through praying the Liturgy of the Hours, he regularly fasted, and under his robes of Stately Office, he wore a hair shirt. St Thomas generously gave his money to his local parish church. He served his king and country diligently, not for financial rewards, but as a service ultimately directed to God. By applying the Gospel to concrete situations in his life, he was able to orientate his life toward God, despite living very much in the midst of the world. When the time came, St Thomas witnessed to Christ with his life; He stated before his martyrdom, “I am the king’s good servant, but God’s first.”

The prophet Amos tells us that we are not to misuse others for our personal financial benefit; we are not to resent the times when we serve God rather than our own interests (Amos 8:4 – 7). Jesus challenges us to keep the right balance in all aspects of our lives, particularly money, by serving God first.

Archbishop Mark has a message for you

We knew it had to come soon, but when the Queen died the other day there was almost a sense of disbelief or at least shock. She had always been there, the only monarch most of us had ever known; and there was an illusory sense that somehow she'd last forever. But after seventy years she now makes her way home to God on the last of her many journeys. She was a woman of deep religious faith but not in any showy or divisive way. She worked by understated witness rather than by argument of any kind. Though born to great privilege she had about her a no-nonsense humility, and she knew that one day she'd have to give an account to God. That day has now come, and we pray that God will say to the Queen, "Thanks for all you've done" and lead her into eternal peace.

Please pray for the Sick and needy and all the sick of the Parish and their families including Kathleen Bonnell, Denise Cole, Pia Aarts, Doreen Ayres, Martin Harrison, and particularly all those affected by coronavirus locally and globally, and their loved ones, and also those remaining in the Parish Journal for the Sick.

MINISTRY ADDRESSES AT MASSES THIS WEEKEND.

Ministry of the Communion to the Sick—
Mary Juratowitch.

This Ministry role entails rostering people to do this important ministry in our Parish, taking Communion to the Sick whether it be a parishioner who is unable to attend Mass or to take Communion to parishioners who now reside in Nursing home facilities. To be able to attend any Nursing Home facilities parishioners are also required to have current flu and Covid immunisations.

Baptism—Rosanna Tumelty. The Baptism ministry meets with the families who are preparing to baptise their child into the Catholic faith. The ministry team generally meets monthly on the first Monday of the Month at 7.00pm for approximately an hour with families and discuss what the Baptism journey is and how it is the beginning of a life long journey for their child and the family into the Catholic faith. The team discusses the Rituals and Symbols of Baptism with the families and prepares them on what will be expected and required of them for their child's baptism.

Sacramental Program. This ministry is working with families of children who are at the age to journey through the Sacraments of Confirmation, Eucharist and Reconciliation. This is a 3-year process commencing with Confirmation in Year 4, Eucharist in Year 5 and Reconciliation in Year 6. These Sacraments cannot be done all in one year as the Archdiocese of Brisbane has made the journey a 3-year process to assist the children to grow and encourage them on a life long journey with God.

Eucharistic Adoration—Deacon Adrian Eldridge/Rosanna. Eucharistic Adoration is about spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. During this time we “watch and wait”, we remain “silent” in Jesus’ presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament occurs on the first Friday of each month immediately after the 8am Mass with Exposition and Benediction from 6pm till 6.30pm. Please click here for more information.

The annual Multicultural Mass celebrates the diversity of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Brisbane by sharing the cultural faith expression of the migrants and refugees within our Archdiocese. The Mass will be held on Sunday 25th September at the Cathedral in observance of World Day of Migrant and Refugees. It will be celebrated by Archbishop Mark Coleridge and concelebrated by priests ministering to cultural communities throughout the Archdiocese. Cultural performances and refreshments in the cathedral grounds will follow. Find out more or register here: <https://app.tickets.org.au/eb/MCM22>
