Feasts of remembrance – All Saints’ Day and All Souls’ Day

First of November is marked annually in the Catholic liturgical calendar as a day to remember and venerate saints from around the world and throughout history - not only those known and canonised, but also all unknown as well.

In the 4th century, All Saints’ Day traditions served to honour the great number of individuals martyred for their faith during the persecutions in the late Roman Empire. It was during the 8th century that Pope Gregory III declared that all saints be remembered on November 1.

All Saints’ Day is an opportune time to consider the example saints offer us today and to reflect on how we can imitate their holiness. As Pope Benedict XVI remarked in 2011, All Saints’ Day calls us “to see the Church... as Christ wanted it, that is, as the communion of saints”.

All Souls’ Day follows All Saints’ Day on November 2, when Catholics remember, pray and offer Mass for the souls in Purgatory, that they may be purified and attain the Beatific Vision.” All Souls Day annually provides Catholics a chance to pray and do Christian works in memory of the dead, but in reality every day presents a fine opportunity to do so.

While no longer Holy Days of Obligation in Australia, All Saints’ Day and All Souls’ Day mark two very special celebrations for Catholics. Our parish will be marking these days with the celebration of the Holy Eucharist. Mass times this year for both of these special celebrations are: 6pm vigil Mass on Monday 31st and 8am on All Saints’ Day and 10am for All Souls.

November, the Month of the Holy Souls.

This month we focus our prayerful intentions upon our deceased loved ones, family, friends, past parishioners and all who have died especially those who have no one to remember them. You will notice, during Mass, envelopes on the altar of the church. These are the envelopes on which are written the names of your loved ones for whom you have asked Masses to be offered. November Mass envelopes are available at the entrance of the church. Let us continue to keep our deceased loved ones in our prayers.

BRING HOPE TO NEELA AND HER FAMILY

Thank you so much for your generous partnership with life-changing mission programs like the establishment of the Deberety Goat Rearing Centre in Emdibir, Ethiopia.

Your gift is helping the Church and the local community work towards constructing the Centre, supplying feed and veterinary medication, and procuring goats to provide nutritious milk to help address problems like malnutrition in babies and children. Your gift also supports mission programs around the world that reach out and give life to those in most need.
