"Endurance never gives up hope in God"

In today's Gospel reading we hear Jesus tell his disciples that if they endure to the end they will gain their lives - they will inherit abundant life and lasting happiness with God. Endurance is an essential strength which God gives to those who put their trust in him. Endurance is the patience which never gives up hope, never yields to despair or hatred. Patience is long-suffering because it looks beyond the present difficulties and trials and sees the reward which comes to those who persevere with hope and trust in God. That is why Godly endurance is more than human effort. It is first and foremost a supernatural gift of the Holy Spirit which enables us to bear up under any trial or temptation.

Endurance is linked with godly hope - the supernatural assurance that we will see God face to face and inherit all the promises he has made. Jesus is our supreme model and pioneer who endured the cross for our sake (Hebrews 12:2). "God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8). Jesus willingly shed his blood for us - to win for us pardon and peace with God. Our joy and privilege is to take up our cross each day to follow the Lord Jesus.

The word "martyr" in the New Testament Greek means "witness". The Book of Revelation says that "Jesus was the faithful witness ...who freed us from our sins by his blood" (Revelation 1:5). Tertullian, a second century lawyer who converted when he saw Christians singing as they went out to die by the hands of their persecutors, exclaimed: "The blood of the martyrs is seed." Their blood is the seed of new Christians, the seed of the church.

The third century bishop, Cyprian said: "When persecution comes, God's soldiers are put to the test, and heaven is open to martyrs. We have not enlisted in an army to think of peace and to decline battle, for we see that the Lord has taken first place in the conflict." True martyrs live and die as witnesses of the Gospel. They overcome their enemies through persevering hope and courage, undying love and forbearance, kindness, goodness, and compassion.

God may call some of us to be martyrs who shed their blood for bearing witness to Jesus Christ. But for most of us, our call is to be 'dry' martyrs who bear testimony to the joy and power of the Gospel in the midst of daily challenges, contradictions, temptations and adversities which come our way as we follow the Lord Jesus.

What will attract others to the truth and power of the Gospel? When they see Christians loving their enemies, being joyful in suffering, patient in adversity, pardoning injuries, and showing comfort and compassion to the hopeless and the helpless. Jesus tells us that we do not need to fear our adversaries. God will give us sufficient grace, strength, and wisdom to face any trial and to answer any challenge to our faith. Are you ready to lay down your life for Christ and to bear witness to the joy and freedom of the Gospel? Source: Don Schwager © 2022. Servants of the Word, @Dailyscripture.net

Dear Parish Volunteers

On behalf of Fr Odina and the Parish staff, you are cordially invited to a combined end of year volunteer Christmas gathering.

A Shared morning Tea

Date: Thursday 15th December, 2022

Time: 10:00am

Venue: Parish Community Centre

RSVP: Thursday 8th December

The Parish will provide light refreshments.

Please bring along a shared plate of finger food.

CHRISTMAS ASSISTANCE

If you will be at St Joseph's for Christmas and willing to assist at one of the Christmas Masses, please leave your name for consideration on the sheets which are now on the work room bench. The sheets will be available for the next 3 weeks with the rosters being compiled after that time.

If you don't normally assist as a Minister of the Word or Minister of Communion, could I encourage you to nominate as a greeter, a collector or to bring the Gospel forward. Families might like to nominate to carry the Offertory gifts forward.

Please give this request your prayerful reflection and indicate your willingness to assist.

Thank you. Maureen

Advent Resource: "Heart of the Disciple" is a new 28-day reflection resource that can be used during Advent by individuals and groups, or at any time during the 2022-2023 liturgical year. Its main purpose is to help us to find a few minutes each day to practice what it means to sit with God and to trust God to lead us forward.

Limited number of books are available for $5.00. If you would like to join a small group during the week, please contact the Parish office to register your interest.
