Luke 23:35 - 43: Christ the King

King David was militarily the most successful king of Israel. He completed the conquest of the Promised Land started 450 years earlier by Joshua. He was chosen by God to be King of Israel after Saul's act of disobedience towards God. David was originally King at Hebron over the tribe of Judah; the book of Samuel recounts how later, David is made king of all of Israel, uniting all of the tribes under his rule. The people remind David that God has said to him, "You are the man who will shepherd my people Israel" (2 Sam 5:2). The name David in Hebrew means "Beloved". The King of Israel is a shepherd of God's people, he is the beloved.

When Jesus is baptised in the River Jordan, God bears witness to him, "Thou art my beloved Son; with thee I am well pleased" (Lk 3:22). Jesus says of himself, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep" (Jn 10:11). Jesus spent his ministry calling all of the people, Israelites and Gentiles into a unified people under His rule. Jesus does not rule from a palace, He rules from a cross. It is from the cross that Jesus starts His conquest of souls.

The thief is the first person to be rescued by Jesus. What was it that the thief saw that so many others had missed? Moved by grace, the thief makes his request to Jesus, "remember me when you come into your kingdom." This request echoes the prayer many Jews would make to God from the Psalms, "Remember me according to your mercy" (Ps 25:7), only the thief is making this prayer to Jesus.

What do we see in Jesus? Is He the Beloved Son of God through whom we make our petitions to the Father? Is Jesus the Good Shepherd, who takes care of our needs, in whom we trust? Do we accept Jesus as our King, Lord of the universe, with the consequence that He is ruler and sovereign of our lives? Christ the King is all of these, and more; the true King ruling from the cross. Ultimately, He is the King who loves us with a love that is stronger than death.

Deacon Adrian Eldridge OSF

JOEY'S MARKET: The Joey's Market Stall held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last week raised over $1300 for the Parish Maintenance Program. This was a great effort. A sincere thank you to those who made it happen, the donors, the workers, the Parish Office and the customers. Your contribution to the stall is greatly appreciated. – Annette Baker

SEEKING
Please check your offices to see if there would be a disused laptop in working order which you would be prepared to donate to need families in the Philippines.

Your donation would be greatly appreciated. Please contact the Parish office should you be in a position to support.
Thank you.

Dear Parish Volunteers

On behalf of Fr Odinaka and the Parish staff, you are cordially invited to a combined end of year volunteer Christmas gathering.

A Shared morning Tea

Date: Thursday 15th December, 2022

Time: 10:00am

Venue: Parish Community Centre

RSVP: Thursday 8th December

The Parish will provide light refreshments.

CHRISTMAS ASSISTANCE

If you will be at St Joseph's for Christmas and willing to assist at one of the Christmas Masses, please leave your name for consideration on the sheets which are now on the work room bench. The sheets will be available for the next week with the rosters being compiled after that time.

If you don't normally assist as a Minister of the Word or Minister of Communion, could I encourage you to nominate as a greeter, a collector or to bring the Gospel forward. Families might like to nominate to carry the Offertory gifts forward.

Please give this request your prayerful reflection and indicate your willingness to assist.
Thank you. Maureen

The ACBC Office for Justice, Ecology and Peace invites you to attend a special on-line event to mark the International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women

Date: Friday 25 November 2022
Time: 3:00 – 5:00 PM AEDT

Keynote speakers will be Bishop Vincent Long, Chair, Bishops Commission for Social Justice, Mission and Service, and Michael Jeh, Ambassador, Small Steps 4 Hannah, a foundation established by Sue, Lloyd and Nat Clarke, the family of Hannah Clarke and her three beautiful children who were murdered by her partner and their father in Brisbane in 2020.

Sr. Christine Caralan from Australian Catholic Religious against Trafficking in Humans (ACRATH) and Shatha Jago from Jesuit Refugee Services (JRS) will also present information on the resources and campaigns their organisations have developed for the 16 Days of Activism on Gender Based Violence which begins on 25 November.

This event will draw further attention to the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference's 2022 – 2023 Social Justice Statement, Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse. Please register for the event at the following link:
