Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. It is the traditional day on which the Church remembers Jesus's triumphant entrance into Jerusalem amid a group of people worshipping him, laying down palm branches before him, and shouting his praises. This event is so significant that each of the Gospels has an account: Matthew 21:1–9, Mark 11:1–10, Luke 19:28–38, and John 2:12–19.

All four versions depict Jesus at his most glorious moment up to this point in his ministry. What a sharp contrast with Good Friday! At Jesus's Crucifixion, no crowds will sing his praises; instead people will hurl insults at him. An even more dynamic contrast is that of Easter morning, when we encounter the Risen Jesus. Jesus's triumph over the grave far exceeds his entry into Jerusalem.

Today it is clear, however, that the praise given to Jesus on the day he rode into Jerusalem, the day we now celebrate as Palm Sunday, does not indicate that he is to be a worldly king but rather that he is to change the world profoundly and forever by bringing redemption to all people.

In the Gospel according to Mark, the inscription on the cross of Jesus is a short, matter-of-fact statement. The Gospel according to John (see 19:19–20), however, says that the inscription states that Jesus is from Nazareth and that he is King of the Jews. In addition, Pilate orders that the inscription be written in three languages: Hebrew, Latin, and Greek. Today, on crucifixes people wear around their necks, we sometimes see the letters INRI. These letters come directly from the Scripture passage in John. The letters INRI stand for "Jesus Nazareus Rex Iudaeorum," or "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews."

Sixth Sunday of Lent (Palm Sunday) 23 & 24 February

This year, we shared with you the story of three inspiring women from across the globe, who overcame challenges to complete their education, access water and find secure employment. With the support of compassionate people like you, they are now forging a path to a better future for their families and their communities.

Ronita from the Philippines has now graduated high school and secured a job at a call centre. This job was only possible because of a certificate she gained from completing her studies.

Leaia and her family now have a water tank at their home in Samoa. She and her family now have a steady supply of clean drinking water. Next year, they will also have a toilet built, with the support of Caritas Samoa, which will further improve their health and living conditions.

Memory completed her vocational training course in carpentry and joinery. After completing a work contract at one of the largest electrical companies in Malawi, Memory now plans to return to her village and provide carpentry services to people in her community.

It's through the generosity of people like you that we can continue to support people like Ronita, Leaia and Memory.

There is still time to donate! Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow, for all future generations.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from your parish, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus revealed to a Polish nun, St Faustina Kowalska, His desire that all people should know and honour His infinite mercy. The Feast of Divine Mercy is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter each year in response to our Lord's requests.

Please join in our local parish celebration of this feast day on Sunday 7th April at 1:30pm for Eucharistic Adoration, Rosary, Chaplet of Divine Mercy, 2nd Rite of Reconciliation, 3pm Holy Mass and veneration of the Divine Mercy Image. 1st Rite of Reconciliation available 9am – 11am and 4:30pm- 5pm Saturday 6th April 2024 (please try to attend one of these times).

The Novena to the Divine Mercy starts on Good Friday.

Congratulations and God's richest blessings to Josephine Flynn who celebrates her 85th birthday on Friday 22nd March, 2024.

Archbishop Mark has a message for you

In ancient Greece, the Olympic Games were to be a time of peace when there was a pause in the endless warfare between the Greek states. The Games said that war was not the natural state of the human being and that peace was the will of heaven. The actual combat of war was replaced by the ritualised contest of sport. Something of that spirit inspired the modern Olympic movement. But you wouldn't know it from the bickering that's broken out in Brisbane about the Olympics. The Olympics are supposed to say that there's more to life than politics and more to politics than partisanship. So let's hope that good sense and even peace prevail in the planning for 2032. God knows we need a moment when we look beyond the horrors of war and the bickering of a debilitated politics.
